NB: According to the law, number portability can take maximum 1 business day. Sometimes you also need to consider the additional time required to activate your landline or mobile connection. In that case, you must agree on a specific date for the porting with your operator. If the porting takes more than 1 business day or if the agreed date is not met, you are entitled to compensation. To this effect, please contact your new operator. For more information about your right to compensation in case of delay in the porting of a number, please visit the following link: www.ibpt.be/np.
